We have been helping companies raise finance since 1991. We saw that traditional Venture Capital markets were failing smaller companies. Not only that, the City advisors were charging large fees right at the time when their clients could least afford it. So David Beer set about changing the model by bringing City expertise to unlisted companies. Beer & Partners became the first serious player in the hidden Business Angel Market. Beer & Partners is still the only firm of any size that has closed the “equity gap”, between family capital and the institutions. It is, by far, the UK's most successful source of capital in the equity gap which has now grown to cover the £75,000 and £5 million range.

We have achieved this by listening to what our clients and our investors really want and finding a cost-effective way of providing it. We are not just a database, we know our more active investors well, we know what they are looking for and what they want to avoid. Importantly we know what skills and contacts they bring. That is why we are good at what we do.
