GCR provides scientific information on drug therapy and disease management in the elderly such as osteoporosis, late-life psychosis and heart failure. Our Continuing Education workshops for pharmacists cover the top chronic diseases in older adults including management of Alzheimer's dementia, chronic pain, depression, epilepsy, gastrointestinal disorders and hypertension. The Senior Care Resources section gives a brief discussion of the current long-term care marketplace for the caregivers of the aging population. Our information is balanced, objective, comprehensive, scientific, and continually updated. GCR, Geriatric Consultant Resources, LLC, is an Ann Arbor, US-based corporation specializing in the educational and research needs of pharmacists, physicians, and other healthcare professionals responsible for providing pharmacotherapy to the elderly in senior care settings.
