Our mission is unique, and so is our law firm. We concentrate in managing and resolving complex legal problems and disputes. We handle substantial and challenging transactions. We work proactively and creatively to solve problems in order to achieve our clients' objectives. We litigate vigorously to protect and vindicate our clients' interests. We offer the same level of sophisticated practice found in the largest law firms in the country. At the same time, we are a small firm dedicated to providing personal attention and service to our clients. Our mission demands that our attorneys possess the broad view of a generalist, but one whose practice is complemented by detailed legal knowledge. This perspective enables us to identify, evaluate and efficiently manage the entire problem facing our client, while addressing the details necessary to achieve the desired result. To these talents we add the equally necessary ingredients of common sense, interpersonal skills and years of practical experience. The result is timely services that fully meet our clients' needs and expectations.
